Green And Gold

Published by the Senior Class

A black and white photograph of a snowy landscape. In the foreground, a thick layer of snow covers the ground. In the background, a line of bare, dark trees stands against a light, hazy sky. The trees are mostly vertical, with some branches reaching out. The overall atmosphere is quiet and wintry.

How many roads must a man walk down,
Before you can call him a man?
The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind.
The answer is blowing in the wind.

For your tireless efforts,
 For your friendly and
 energetic manner,
 For your concern for
 all students,
 The 1969 Green & Gold
 is dedicated to you -

Foreword

The Senior Class is proud to present the 1969 GREEN and GOLD. In it we have tried to capture the spirit and congenial environment at West Rutland High School.

As you travel from page to page, you will relive the moments of enthusiasm and despair in the classroom, "the ecstasy of victory and the agony of defeat" in sports, and the hours of sweat and toil rewarded by a feeling of unity and satisfaction.

The present Senior Class will, surely, attain accomplishments in the future, but never again as 'the class.' As we follow our separate roads, we hope our individual achievements will be a credit to the class and to mankind.

Sincerely,

Callen Shay

CLASS POEM

Tonight we are departing from this school
But we mustn't forget the golden rule.
The limited world we were living in
Is shattering before us again and again.

We had many great times within these walls,
Laughing and loitering throughout the halls.
We were confronted with responsibilities
And were successful in discovering our capabilities.

We were instructed to be everyone's brother
In studies and sports by teachers and others.
This magnificent moment we should never forget;
In spite of its sadness we should have no regrets.

So let us be proud in our solemnness
And form as a body togetherness;
For then we'll be able to unite in separation,
Parting to find our future without hesitation.

- Patricia Dziubek

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

The chosen theme for this Yearbook, "The Crossroads of Life," is most appropriate. Do you imagine long stretches of broad highway, like an interstate, with few, well-advertised interchanges? Or do you picture life as a journey through a crowded city, with red and green traffic signals, countless side streets, heavy traffic - and perhaps collisions, jay walkers, trucks blocking your vision, speeders and all the rest of the hazards? Could it be some of both?

Are you able to resist the excitement of investigating every side street, so that your progress will not be delayed, your purpose lost? And yet are you open, receptive, curious about the roads opening along your way? Can you decide when a change of direction is wise and needed, and when it is otherwise?

That you will face crossroads and their demand for decisions is inevitable. So will there be dead-ends and rough detours. Just as there is excitement in the journey, so is there need to plot and plan your route. Dull and old-fashioned as the road-map may seem, it helps to pinpoint destinations and directions. The arrow marked "North" provided on every map for our orientation may be likened to faith in man and in his Maker which, time has shown, provides the best guidance to a life well lived.

Sincerely yours,

GEOFFREY GRAHAM
Superintendent of Schools

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The road you cross as you graduate from West Rutland High School is essentially a part of a continuous journey along a path that began with life and was broadened by learning. Life long challenge will present for you, decision after decision, concerning which road to take.

It is the hope of myself, your teachers, and parents that what you have experienced in our relationship, will strengthen and guide you to a meaningful, satisfactory, and complete life's passage.

Sincerely yours,

Samuel S. Loughridge

President's Message

We the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-nine have been successfully learning of man and his world for the past four years. For some these four years have meant studying for a vocation, for others it will serve as a basis of valuable knowledge for a more advanced education.

At West Rutland High School we have learned the value of being independent thinkers and individuals. Because we are part of a time with unlimited possibilities, it is important that we decide now to take an active part in the development of a more perfect civilization. All through life we must train our minds and bodies in order to assume our responsibilities to society.

We have found the priceless opportunities, time, and the guidance needed to seek a well-rounded personality. We have had the chance to recognize and to absorb some of these resources. What we shall do with these advantages is up to us as individuals as is the use we find for our energies and abilities in relation to both man and his world.

Class Presentations

DONNA ASCOLI - A bottle of Curl-Free to remind you of all the times you did your hair instead of your homework.

DONNA BLAIR - A white Mustang - maybe someday you'll be part owner.

SUSAN BRUCE - A cash register - you've spent so much time working on one, we thought you might as well own one!

JUDY CASSADY - A toy soldier to keep you company while yours is away.

JOE CZACHOR - A great big football dummy so you won't ever stop tackling.

MARY DION - A doll so that there'll be somebody else who can wear your clothes.

PATTY DZUIBEK - A broom to remind you of your job as janitor of the yearbook.

BOB GERYK - A Judy-doll so she'll always be with you.

THERESA GIEBUTOWSKI - A copy of the Iliad for your summer reading. Just in case you should get bored, here's the Cliff Notes to make it a little shorter.

AUDREY GILLIGAN - A muzzle so we can all have a bit of peace and quiet.

JUDY GRABOWSKI - A phys. ed. uniform. Now you don't have to wear your "indecent" shorts any more.

NANCY GRABOWSKI - A noisemaker so we'll hear you better.

COLLEEN GRAY - A bottle of Breck Basic - it give you lots and lots of body!

HELEN GREMBOWICZ - The book, The Grinch Who Stole Christmas, to remind you of your nickname, "The Grinch," given to you by your favorite teacher.

WILLIAM HIGGINS - A gun and a rabbit's foot - for better luck next time.

FRANCES HUBBARD - A blank protest sign to protest against anything you want. Need we say more?

JOHN JAKUBOWSKI - A box of stationery to remind you of all the secretarial work you did for Johnnie and Chris.

REGINA JAKUBOWSKI - A yellow Corvette - your dream come true. So you can suck 'em all up in your tailpipe.

THERESA JANKOWSKI - A trophy for all the hard work you put into girls' sports.

DICK JOHNSON - Your own gas station so you can make all the repairs on the spot.

ELAINE and MARY KRAKOWKA - Two separate sets of dishes so you won't have to share things any more.

JOHN LUNDRIGAN - An armor car - this one is guaranteed dent-proof!

GARY McCULLOUGH - Dishwashing detergent to remind you of your job at Pico. If you make lots of suds, it'll make up for the lack of snow.

MARY McCULLOUGH - A toy airplane to help you along in your future as a stewardess.

MARY McDEVITT - A little mouse to remind you of your nickname, "Squeaks."

HELEN NIENALTOWSKI - A year's supply of gum to replenish your supply.

STEVE O'BARA - A toy tractor so that you can plow through anything!

CHRIS ORZELL - A tall hat and cane so that you can do your routine in public.

PEGGY ORZELL - A pizza mix to remind you of all the times at Ted's.

BOB ORZELL - An abstract wood design. I'll bet even YOU can't figure out what that's supposed to be.

ANNE OSCIELOWSKI - A mini-skirt to help you have mini, mini more good times.

JERRY PARKER - A pumpkin. We know you like your nickname!

NANCY PARKER - A package of Aunt Jemima pancake mix.

STANLEY POPLOSKI - A pack of looseleaf. Now you don't have to steal any more from the teachers.

DIANE SABATINO - A guitar that you can carry with you and sing for everyone, everywhere.

ANNE SALENGO - A walking stick and a map of W.R. so that when you get "old and gray" you'll still be able to take those long walks.

BETTY SHEROWSKI - A car with no dents at all - just so you'll know what it looks like.

DENNIS SMITH - A bottle of milk recommended by the health dept. It won't take away the pain, but at least it's legal.

BARB VALACH - A john now you have 2 Johns!

ANNE WELCH - A calorie-counting book so now you can really get started on your diet.

MARY WILKINS - A sewing kit so that you can make more outfits.

CARLENE WISKOSKI - A book of jokes. Need we say more?

JOHN ZUK - A little red light to remind you of all your fouls.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I -
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

ACTIVITIES

CLASS SONG

We've been waiting so long
For this special day;
But now we'd like it prolonged
Even though we are gay.

While we sit here waiting,
Previous memories are renewed.
There should be no hesitating
Because we might get subdued.

Our diploma, a sign of accomplishment and success
And the key to a new way of life,
Will soon be given to us,
Bringing with it more worry and strife.

Now it's time to say goodbye
For this great day is reaching an end
And some of us may want to cry -
I just hope we don't have to pretend.

The 1969 Green & Gold Yearbook could not have been possible without the help of many people. For giving us their time and services, we would like to thank:

Mr. Marsh, our advisor, for his patience and guidance.
Mrs. Stoodley, our business advisor, for helping us in our financial matters.
Miss Eagan, for her long hours of proofreading.
Mr. Harry Clark, our yearbook representative, for his helpfulness.
Mr. Robert Parker, for his fine formal photographs of our activities.
Mr. Jack Rogers, for his action shots of our football and basketball games.
Mr. Robert Frazier and Lindholm Sports, for processing our candids quickly.
Mr. Ray Rodd, for his scenic picture used on the senior division page.
Bob Orzell, our art editor, for designing our cover.
Donna Ascoli, class photographer, for her candids.
The Patrons and Advertisers for their financial support of the Green & Gold.
And finally, all members of the senior class who helped us put this yearbook together.
